

Standing out was the newly acquired Champagne Bernard Rémy Carte Blanche NV (rrp £26.99). It was wine number one of the tasting and a nice start to be met with a spring-like swathe of fresh lemon, citrus and a palate that showed good lively minerality.